

Mundo B, 26 Rue d'Edimbourg, Brussels 🏠 Place

18 June 2019 📅 Date

15.00 – 18.00 🕒 Time

Sport women in the city: Challenges and good practices

14.45 – 15.00: Registration and welcoming of participants

15.00 – 15.15 Introduction

- Caterina Dadà et Francesco Pala, European Association of Local Democracy

15.15 – 15.45: Theoretical framework

- Results of the survey on the barriers for women practice of outdoor sport - Vicky Dellas, Mulier Instituut (NL)
- Women, sport and urban space – Sana Afouaiz, Womenpreneur Initiative (BE)

15.45 – 16.45: Good practices from Europe and from the world [1]

- Pilot programs of the SWUP project - Tempo livre (PT), Polisportiva Corbetta (IT), Ajuntament de Granollers (ES), Municipalité de Ramnicu Sarat (RO), Sofia – European capital for sport (BG)

16.45 – 17.00: Coffee break

17.00 - 18.00: Good practices from Europe and from the world [2]

- Catalogue of good practices, IRS (IT)
A collection of initiatives from all around the world that promote the integration of women in the city through sport
- Explorative walks - Garance (BE)
Action-research to raise awareness on the challenges related to gender and urban planning
- “Good in my body, good in my head, good in my city/life” - La Maison des femmes (BE)
A range of outdoor sport courses for women of different age to fight against sexism in the city

18.30/ 20.00 Feminist walk in the streets of Brussels, Noms Peut-Être

*Registration required via this link

Simultaneous interpretation English-French and French-English will be provided during the whole event